

The white letters T8 indicate this Devastator was aircraft number 8 in Lexington's torpedo squadron VT-2, led by Lieutenant Commander James Brett. Orders to remove the red circle in the US insignia and then the red and white striped rudders on all carrier aircraft were issued in early and late April 1942, although these took a while to implement.